PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Mitch has more than 15 years experience working in television, theatre and film. After roles in Australian television dramas “All Saints” and “Water Rats”, Mitch appeared in the Australian film “The Road from Coorain” alongside Juliet Stevenson and Richard Roxburgh. Mitch then joined the main cast of “Home & Away” for three years in the role of Sebastian Miller, before co-founding independent theatre company Stella Green Productions. For Stella Green, Mitch appeared regularly in Sydney’s top independent theatres including numerous performances for Tamara Rock Surfers (Old Fitzroy) and the Darlinghurst Theatre. Mitch was the lead in Stella Green’s first feature film “Twenty Ten”, which won awards at a host of international film festivals.
